Product Description

The Asolo table is characterized by the purity of the shape. An essential balance of lines and volumes defines the elegant composition that sees the juxtaposition of a central sculptural base, made of Ceppo stone and a silver-plated brass foil, and a top in bog oak of slender proportions obtained by tapering up to the extreme the perimeter's thickness. Made combining different dimensions with innovative material proposals – finishes, marbles, and metals – Asolo presents itself as a furniture with a strong character that conveys harmony. Please inquire for size and finish customizations. Hand made in Italy.
