Product Description

Its feature is the extra width. In fact, it is slightly larger than the other chairs, making it more luxurious than the seats of the same type, without using more space than a conventional chair. This is because the space between the folded chairs is given by the width of the shoulders of the person sitting on it. The chair is available with and without armrests; the latter is also stackable. It has a sleek, minimalist design that works in many furnishing spaces. The program will be developed with two different heights, with the lower legs to make it ideal as a small lounge chair. The structure is made of foamed polyurethane mold and rests on metal legs, lacquered in a variety of colors. Designed in 2017. Hand Made in Italy.
