Product Description

The reissue COSTELA by Martin Eisler, an icon of Brazilian 1950s design, and winner of the Milanese Compasso d'Oro award. An elegant yet informal armchair. With its sensual aesthetic, natural materials and intelligent design, it offers sophisticated personalization. Costela is a paradigm of creative design. The fundamental idea on which the chair is built is the beautiful wooden structure with its wooden ribs embracing both the seat and the back. The functional and aesthetic completion of details, the large cushions, set horizontally and vertically ensuring absolute comfort. Designed in 1952, re-edition 2019. Handmade in Italy.
