Product Description

Day Bed 710 models the strength, simplicity, and versatility of Aalto's L-leg family. The bentwood legs and slatted frame combine to provide a sturdy, lightweight structure that can be moved as necessary. Made of solid birch, the Day Bed 710 invites both sitting and reclining. Beyond the mattress, the day bed can also be accessorized with cushions; both items come with removable covers and are available in a variety of colors and textiles. CAL 117 and SF-17 on request. Designed in 1933. Made in Finland.
