Product Description

The Kashmir collection is an exercise in the essential and speaks in low volume, it's steel frame references a simplicity from the past which is offset by a tailored back-rest. These refined items envelop the sitter and provide generous comfort and support in all positions. Circular stitching details incorporated into the backrest gives these pieces a strong sense of modern craftsmanship. This collection will perform equally as well in an office, cafe or home. The Collection includes: chair and stool.

Designed in 2019.
Handmade in New Zealand.
