Product Description

The structure is in beech and poplar solid wood with plywood inserts, the spring effect is ensured by elastic and non-deformable belts. The structured cover is in expanded polyurethane of varying high density and a highly-elastic top layer, the padding is non-deformable with different densities and is made with feathers and synthetic material. A laser-cut bronzed metal plate seems to hold the sofa in a warm hug. It is designed to fit both modern and classic settings, and with its design and immediate sensation of comfort, it will undoubtedly stand out from all angles. The collection includes: sofa and coffee table. Handmade in Italy.
